GLOBAL PROCUREMENT SUMMIT 2027

TRANSFORMING PROCUREMENT FOR THE NEXT DECADE

09TH - 10TH FEB 2027 | THE LALIT NEW DELHI

BACKGROUND

Procurement is entering a decisive decade. It is no longer viewed only as an administrative or transactional function; it has become a strategic lever for public value, institutional resilience, competitiveness, innovation and sustainable development. For India and other emerging economies, the opportunity is especially significant across the public and private sectors. It can strengthen public-service delivery, transparency and inclusion while helping businesses improve competitiveness, efficiency, innovation and resilience.

Against this backdrop, and remarkable achievement of Global Procurement Summit over more than a decade now, All India Management Association (AIMA), with support of the World Bank announces the Global Procurement Summit (GPS) 2027 under the overarching theme, "Transforming Procurement for the Next Decade", scheduled on 9th and 10th February 2027 at New Delhi, India. The Summit will bring together senior policy-makers, public and private sector leaders, multilateral institutions, procurement professionals, technology providers and strategic suppliers to examine the decisions, capabilities and partnerships required to build future-ready procurement systems.
