ONLINE TEACHING SKILLS FOR FACULTY

17th June 2020 (Friday) , 1000hrs – 1230hrs, 1500hrs – 1700hrs

Online Teaching has taken a big leap , converting the threat to an opportunity. Virtual connectivity brings many advantages to learn and disseminate knowledge, at the same time Faculty at academic institutions need to learn and catch-up with the immediate change requirement and quickly modify and re-design educational modules to suit the online delivery methods and acquire skills to deliver as effective and impactful sessions as they use to. Faculty is required to bridge the gap between face-to-face and virtual learning as much as possible for the students, by using various technology platforms and tools.
