Retreat Background

Data is the new god of business and only the fastest learner survives in the knowledge economy. Consumers are taking to ever-new gadgets and platforms for information, entertainment and transaction and brands have to be imagined and nurtured in new ways. Companies cannot collect the necessary data and act on it without augmenting human intelligence with significant automation.

The retreat will provide answers to the key questions about formulating and implementing a digital strategy for marketing. It will highlight how the marketers can use technologies such as big data, artificial intelligence, robotics, augmented reality etc. to deliver greater savings, convenience, customization, innovation and trust to the consumer while also improving the return on marketing expenditure.

AIMA's 4th Digital & Social Marketing Retreat will focus on this major shift towards marketing automation.

Methodology

The Retreat will be conducted in an experience sharing mode and the learning experience will be very intensive and interactive, encouraging high level of active participation and interaction by the delegates.
