About AIMA

The All India Management Association (AIMA) is the apex body for management in India with over 38000 members and close to 6000 corporate /institutional members through 67 Local Management Associations affiliated to it. AIMA was formed over 60 years ago and is a non-lobbying, not for profit organisation. It works closely with industry, Government, academia and students, to further the cause of the management profession in India; and is represented on a number of policy making bodies of the Government of India and national associations. AIMA offers various services in the areas of testing, distance education, skill development & training, research, publications, executive education and management development programmes – both in the physical and virtual mode. In addition, AIMA brings to the Indian managers, the best management practices and techniques through numerous foreign collaborations with professional bodies and institutions.

Context

The public sector remains the foundation of economic capacity, policy execution and responsible business. The areas of public enterprise's initiatives and interventions are changing as the economy and the state are undergoing a radical transformation. The PSUs are central to India's transition to a new technological, environmental, social and governance ethos and their role is critical in building state capacity for driving economic growth, resilience, agility and innovation. As the bearer of the state power and accountability, the public sector is expected to deliver the necessary material and intellectual capacity to shape the new economy. The future of the country's economy is linked to the future of the PSUs and the public sector leaders need to find ways to build internal capabilities and external partnerships to perform their leadership role in India's economic transformation.
